

Alexandra Wheatley

Associate

alex.wheatley@law.bm

(441) 295-7105

Alex is an Associate at Marshall Diel & Myers Limited having first started as a summer student in 2005 and completing her pupillage in 2007. During her training and in her practice, Alex has worked with both the Civil/Commercial Litigation team and the Matrimonial and Family team. In recent years, Alex's practice has mainly focused on matrimonial and family law

As part of the Matrimonial and Family team, Alex undertakes all aspects of family and matrimonial work, including divorce, separation, financial matters, children's matters, prenuptial agreements and domestic violence protection order matters. She appears regularly in Magistrates' Court and in

Supreme Court. She received mediation training and certification in 2008 from the University of Notre Dame Law School.

Alex continues to assist the Civil/Commercial Litigation Team and has experience with matters involving personal injury claims, medical negligence claims, construction disputes, employment matters, landlord and tenant matters and foreclosures. She has also worked on immigration matters involving applications for Bermudian Status, work permit applications and immigration appeals. In addition to appearing in the Courts, Alex has appeared before the Land Valuation Tribunal in ARV disputes.

Alex is extremely dedicated to her work and her clients. Her priority is obtaining the best result for her clients whether through negotiation or litigation. She prides herself on providing support and understanding to clients while providing common sense advice.

Education

Dalhousie University, Nova Scotia, Canada (B.Sc., Psychology, 2004)

University of Westminster, London, England (Graduate Diploma in Law- CPE, 2005),.

College of Law, London, England (Legal Practice Course, 2006)

Bar Admissions

Bermuda, 2007

Industry Associations

Member, Bermuda Bar Association

Commissioner for Oaths

Notary Public

Member, Bermuda Dental Board